DISTRICT MISSIONARY EMERITUS

MOTHER GUSTINE HOGAN

There can be no greater postlude to a melodious life in Christ than to remind all who celebrate this Homegoing that MOTHER GUSTINE HOGAN was, indeed, a "King's Daughter!"

Mother Gustine Hogan was the fourth child born of six to the union of Willie and Mattie Ball on December 25, 1916, in Bossier Parish, Louisiana. She was united in marriage to Deacon Rosevelt Hogan. They moved to San Francisco, California in 1945.

Mother Gustine Hogan was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost in 1948 under Bishop W. H. Sims. She served in many local churches as a Trustee Board Member, Usher Board Member, Choir Member and Teacher. Mother Hogan diligently served under the following Pastors: the late Bishop W. H. Sims of Holy Temple COGIC; the late Bishop H. Douglas and the late Bishop E. B. Stewart of Gethsemane COGIC; the late Bishop L. E. Cleaver, Pastor R. D. Collier, the late Bishop B. R. Stewart, the late Superintendent J. King, Sr., and the late Pastor J. King, Jr. of Greater Little Chapel COGIC. Due to transitions in the Jurisidiction, she briefly served under Pastor S. J. Thorner of Jerusalem COGIC; Pastor R. Thompson of Cleaver Memorial COGIC; and Pastor K. Moore of The Church of God In Christ. Mother Hogan's legacy will always remain with Northern California First Jurisdiction. However, in 2012, due to her declining years, she became a member of the James Memorial COGIC, Dr. Lodgie James, Pastor. She also became a member of the Greater Northern California Second Jurisdiction, under the late Bishop Robert-Richard Carr and currently Bishop J. D. Logan and Mother E. Person, State Supervisor of Women.

Mother Gustine Hogan was appointed to serve as District Missionary of the Greater San Francisco District in Northern California First Jurisdiction in 1966. She faithfully served with the "spirit of excellence" for 46 years. She served with the following Superintendents: the late Superintendent L. E. Cleaver, the late Superintendent A. Organ, the late Superintendent G. Williams, the late Superintendent I. Johnson, the late Superintendent T. LeBlanc, and Superintendent Dr. L. James. Over the years, Mother Hogan has brought home many trophies, awards, plaques and banners due to the Greater San Francisco District having the most attendees at the State Women's Conventions, banquets, and State Women's Monthly Meetings. Because of Mother Hogan's desire to be a blessing to the "Man of God", the Lord blessed her to birth the "Pastor's Booster Fund" under the late Bishop B. R. Stewart. She asked each church to present a love token and a white shirt to their pastor. This later became known as the "Pastor's Bonus Night." It served to help the pastors with finances to support the Holy Convocation. This great idea quickly spread to other Jurisdictions and under different names. Pastors are still enjoying this blessing to this day.

Mother Hogan believed in working for the Lord. She served under the following Jurisdictional Prelates and Supervisors: the late Bishop E. B. Stewart, the late Bishop B. R. Stewart, the late Bishop L. C. Patton, Bishop A. Galbraith, the late Bishop R. R. Carr and Bishop J. D. Logan; the late Mother M. McGlothen, the late Mother E. M. Devers, the late Mother G. E. Smith, Mother R. L. Hunt, and Mother E. Person. In 1994, Mother Richardine Hunt appointed her as her Second Assistant to State Supervisor until Mother Hogan's retirement in 2012. Her special slogan before she addressed the congregation was "Tell the Lord Thank You!"

Mother Hogan was known to feed the hungry, clothe and shelter the less fortunate and visit the sick. In her early years she was employed at the Hotel Owner's Laundry. She retired in 1982 after working there for thirty-five years. She was also an entrepreneur in that she rented living space to many tenants. She has always been a caring, praying and loving family woman who spiritually, naturally and financially supported her daughter's family in Shreveport, Louisiana. Her deceased daughter, Mother Mary Simpson and her late husband, Elder Ernest Simpson, Jr., had eight children. In June 2012, Mother Hogan moved in with her third oldest and devoted granddaughter, Dr. Mary James and her husband Administrative Assistant Lodgie James of Hercules, California. Together, they took loving care of her until her Homegoing. The James' three children Lodgie, Jr. & spouse, Tiana; Krystal Johnson & spouse, James, and Jeremy, the youngest son, constantly aided her in many ways. The James grandchildren: Lodgie III, Jeremiah, Nicholas & Josiah; along with Kalia, Ajani, Amari, & J'iane, were all the joys of her life. The Holy Spirit inspired her granddaughter, Dr. Mary James, to have a family reunion and Pre-100th Birthday Celebration on July 15-16, 2016. All of Mother Hogan's grandchildren and their spouses, many great-grands, nieces and nephews, saints and friends from Texas, Louisiana, Los Angeles and different parts of California came to these special events. It was held at the Mira Vista Golf and Country Club in El Cerrito, California. Praise be to God, this was an awesome event!

On Tuesday, September 13, 2016, Mother Hogan heard and answered the Master's Call to come home. Among a host of other relatives and friends, she was reunited with her husband, Deacon Rosevelt Hogan, granddaughter, Linda Johnson and her "son"/nephew, Leland Mims who preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memories seven saved grandchildren: Pastor Carolyn Robinson (Pastor Rodney) of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Tina Orebo (Horace) of Schertz, Texas; Dr. Mary James (Pastor Lodgie) of Hercules, California; Dr. Lee Simpson (Assist. Pastor Pat) of Amarillo, Texas; Mrs. Erma Jones (Pastor Larry) of Arlington, Texas; Mrs. Dianne Simpson of San Francisco, California; and Mr. Michael Simpson of Shreveport, Louisiana. She had 19 great-grandchildren; 25 great, great grandchildren, and 3 great, great, great grandchildren and was a spiritual mother to many. She also leaves to cherish her memory many grand and great nieces and nephews: Aaron Cummings (Lessie) of Haughton, Louisiana; Ella Ruth Lott, and children, Marcus Lott & Deloria Walker of DeSoto, Texas; Demitri, Byron & Patrick Mims of San Francisco, California; Nelva Mims of Novato, California; Maurice Mims of Washington, State; Melba Mims of Houston, Texas; Constance Flack & daughters: Quoa & Kayla Flack; Venus & Juan, and many others. She will be missed; however, always loved and never forgotten by all of the people of various Families, Local Churches and Jurisdictions. "To God be the glory for the things that he has done!
